

Town of East Greenwich
Per Diem Bus Driver- Swift Community Center

The Town of East Greenwich is currently accepting applications/resumes for the position of Per Diem Bus Driver. The Town-operated Senior Center is looking for an individual to provide back-up driver duties on a per diem basis. This position, which is generally limited to an average of 20-25 days per year, provides coverage in the absence of the regular full time Driver/Dispatcher.

This position is responsible for driving a lift-equipped, 20 passenger bus to transport older adults to the Senior Center, shopping and a variety of errands within the Town limits. Applicants must possess a valid RI Commercial Driver's License with a "P" endorsement. Previous experience working with seniors preferred. This position is subject to random Controlled Substance and Alcohol testing. A criminal background check will be required prior to offer of employment.

Interested applicants must submit an application/resume to Sharon Kitchin, Director of Human Resources, Town of East Greenwich, 125 Main Street, East Greenwich, RI 02818 or skitchin@eastgreenwichri.com
