

Hope In Trying Times: Spirituality, Mental Health and Addiction

Fellowship Hall, The First Baptist Church of EG
May 9, 2018 7:00 pm

The East Greenwich Opioid Task Force, Interfaith Counseling Center, The First Baptist Church of East Greenwich and the East Greenwich Mental Health Subcommittee have joined together to offer this rich panel discussion highlighting the contributions and support spirituality offers to our mental health and addiction recovery. How do we sustain hope in the trying times and navigate the uncertainty and powerlessness we experience?

Contact: Christine King, 401-461-5234 or cking@interfaithri.org or Bob Houghtaling, 401-230-2246 or houghtaling2@verizon.net

Panelists

TOM CORDERRE

Senior Advisor to Rhode Island Governor Gina Raimondo. In this role, he is a liaison to the General Assembly and helps coordinate the state's response to the opioid crisis. He is a person in long-term recovery from addiction since 2003.

LINDA FORSBERG

Ordained Lutheran Pastor (ELCA). For the past nineteen years she has served as the Pastor of First Lutheran Church of East Greenwich. She has advanced training in spiritual direction and studies all faith traditions.

BOB HOUGHTALING

Director of the East Greenwich Drug Program for 34 years. He has consulted at the RI State Training School, RI Dept. of Education and for Youth to Youth International, as well as served as an outpatient counselor for numerous agencies.

CHRISTIANE LAMBERT, MA, MSW, LCSW

Counselor with the Interfaith Counseling Center and the Kent Center, she has extensive experience working with students who are at-risk qualifiers.

